JEWS ARE THE VICTIMS OF POLAND'S CIVIL WAR

VIENNA, Dec. 27.—Hundreds are homeless at Lemberg as the result of pogroms against the Jews in that city. It is reported that many people have been killed or wounded and wholesale looting has taken place.

The trouble is said to be extending west of Jaroslav and south of Drohobycz, as well as to many towns in western and eastern Galicia.

Jewish reports say that the disorders were the outcome of an effort to prevent the Jews from carrying out the principles of self-determination according to President Wilson's program. Disinterested observers state that the fighting is the outgrowth of the fact that the Ukrainians in Poland wish to be free and under Ukrainian rule. The people of Lemberg, with the exception of the Jews, want to unite with the Poles. The Poles, therefore, according to these observers, are pursuing a policy of violence against the Jews who are in the minority.

Giant Tulip Trees.

There are tulip trees in South Pasadena, Cal., nearly 2 feet in trunk diameter with an immense spread of top, very fine trees for summer shade and allowing the winter sun to warm the soil. In the list of eastern deciduous trees of good value it stands near the top.

MUST INCREASE FOOD EXPORTS

America Called on by End of War to Supply Added
Millions.

ECONOMY STILL NEEDED.

Over Three Times Pre-War Shipments
Required—Situation in Wheat and Fats Proves Government's Policy Sound.

With the guns in Europe silenced, we have now to consider a new world food situation. But there can be no hope that the volume of our exports can be lightened to the slightest degree with the cessation of hostilities. Millions of people liberated from the Prussian yoke are now depending upon us for the food which will keep them from starvation.

With food the United States made it possible for the forces of democracy to hold out to victory. To insure democracy in the world, we must continue to live simply in order that we may supply these liberated nations of Europe with food. Hunger among a people inevitably breeds anarchy. American food must complete the work of making the world safe for democracy.

Last year we sent 11,820,000 tons of food to Europe. For the present year with only the European Allies to feed, we had originally pledged ourselves to a program that would have increased our exports to 17,500,000 tons. Now, to feed the liberated nations, we will have to export a total of not less than 20,000,000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports. Reviewing the world food situation, we find that some foods will be obtainable in quantities sufficient to meet all world needs under a regime of economical consumption. On the other hand, there will be marked world shortages in some important commodities.

Return to Normal Bread Loaf.

With the enlarged wheat crops which American farmers have grown, and the supplies of Australia, the Argentine and other markets now accessible to shipping, there are bread grains enough to enable the nations to return to their normal wheat loaf, provided we continue to mill flour at a high percentage of extraction and maintain economy in eating and the avoidance of waste.

In fats there will be a heavy shortage—about 8,000,000,000 pounds—in pork products, dairy products and vegetable oils. While there will be a shortage of about three million tons in rich protein feeds for dairy animals, there will be sufficient supplies of other edibles to allow economical consumption.

In the matter of beef, the world's supplies are limited to the capacity of the available refrigerating ships. The supplies of beef in Australia, the Argentine and the United States are sufficient to load these ships. There will be a shortage in the importing countries, but we cannot hope to expand exports materially for the next months in view of the bottle neck in transportation.

We will have a sufficient supply of sugar to allow normal consumption in this country if the other nations retain their present short rations or increase them only slightly. For the countries of Europe, however, to increase their present rations to a material extent will necessitate our sharing a part of our own supplies with them.

Twenty Million Tons of Food.

Of the world total, North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States, including the West Indies, will be called upon to furnish 20,000,000 tons of food of all kinds as compared with our pre-war exports of about 6,000,000 tons.

While we will be able to change our program in many respects, even a casual survey of the world supplies in comparison to world demands shows conclusively that Europe will know famine unless the American people bring their home consumption down to the barest minimum that will maintain health and strength.

There are conditions of famine in Europe that will be beyond our power to remedy. There are 40,000,000 people in North Russia whom there is small chance of reaching with food this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy, and shortly many of their ports will be frozen, even if internal transport could be realized.

To Preserve Civilization.

At this moment Germany has not alone sucked the food and animals from all those masses of people she has dominated and left starving, but she has left behind her a total wreckage of social institutions, and this mass of people is now confronted with absolute anarchy.

If we value our own safety and the social organization of the world, if we value the preservation of civilization itself, we cannot permit growth of this cancer in the world's vitals.

Famine is the mother of anarchy. From the inability of governments to secure food for their people grows revolution and chaos. From an inability to supply their people grows stability of government and the defeat of anarchy. Did we put it on no higher plane than our interests in the protection of our institutions, we must bestir ourselves in solution of this problem.

"I'M THRU-ENZA" GERM MAKES DEBUT

The following is a clipping from the ARC Rays of the Red Cross and perhaps applies to every chapter and branch in the country. It is to be hoped that the Cache County chapter will be able to kill this germ at once:

"With the cessation of hostilities the Red Cross is called upon to combat a new epidemic, originating this time within its own ranks. The affliction is known as 'I'm-thru-enza.'"

The initial symptom is a sense of lassitude—a feeling of 'What's the use? It's all over. Why should I work?' Steps are being taken to isolate the germ—also those who are carrying it.

"The epidemic is not widespread; nevertheless an effort is being made to stem its advance."

"Cold feet" is a marked symptom. Another indication of the presence of the germ is forgetfulness (that the boys are still over there.)

"The victim, as a rule, cannot concentrate the mind (on knitting.)"

The sight becomes impaired (can't see to sew.)

"The ears become affected (can't hear the appeals of hundreds of thousands of refugees who must be clothed, fed and housed.)

"Heart doesn't beat as it used to, and in advanced stage that organ apparently turns to stone."
"A vaccine consisting of equal parts of tincture of I-won't-quit and Red Cross spirits, a dash of patriotism and a peck of pep is effective."

TELEPHONE LEAK CAUSES COLLAPSE

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A plot to restore imperialism and secure the return of Emperor William has been discovered in Berlin, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam.

According to the dispatch, which was filed at Amsterdam on Friday, the chief men behind the plot were Field Marshal von Mackensen, General von Born and General Count Sixt von Arnim. Large sums of money are said to have been placed at the disposal of the leaders by munition makers.

The plot collapsed owing to the fact that a secret service agent overheard a telephone conversation. Many arrests have been made in Berlin and other cities, while the government has long lists of suspects who had planned to seize members of the present government.

No direct evidence of William Hohenzollern's connection with the plot has been found, it is said, but it is believed the outline of the plan was brought to Berlin by two of his suite who recently went to the German capital for the ostensible purpose of taking the wife of the former emperor to Amerongen, Holland.

Lieut. Dr. Gustv Krupp von Bohlen is said to have been in control of the financial arrangements. Field Marshal von Mackensen is reported to have attempted to induce Field Marshal von Hindenburg to join, but the latter refused, saying he intended to retire after the demobilization of the army.

The whole Prussian court, it is stated, was in sympathy with the plotters and it is said that Prince von Baulow and Dr. Georg Michaelis former imperial chancellor, had promised to help. The plan was to organize a provisional government under Field Marshal von Mackensen or some other military leader and then urge William Hohenzollern to return.

Call for Pity.

There are people who go about the world looking out for slights; and they are necessarily miserable, for they find them at every turn, especially the imaginary ones. One has the same pity for such men as for the very poor. They are the morally illiterate. They have had no real education, for they have never learned how to live.

Snakes Bred for Food.

Most of the snakes used by showmen are procured from a large "snake farm" at San Antonio, Tex., where all kinds of reptiles are bred. This farm consists of eight acres for snakes alone, besides the land required for raising rabbits, chickens, frogs and other "snake food."

PIANOS & PIANO PLAYERS

Now on exhibition at our well known establishment.

A Piano is the one rich gift of dignity and refinement. It is a gift associated with love, romance, and sentiment.

A Piano makes a lasting and useful gift. It will remain for years, a source of pleasure and satisfaction as a long and constant reminder of the giver.

No handsomer, more valuable or more enduring gift can be given to a loved one. It was with this in mind that we prepared for the "YULETIDE" many beautiful samples of the PIANO builder's "BEST."

In design, in finish, in tone, in perfection of detail these are certainly instruments de luxe. They possess all of the sterling qualities that "A-1" PIANOS should, plus a lot of little niceties and refinements that do not go with every day piano building.

The love of music is inherent in the human race. It has existed since the beginning of time so far as man is concerned, and it has ever played an important part in progress, advancement, education and in civilization. Music begins where speech ends. It is in itself a language which is universally understood in greater or lesser degree, but always understood. MUSIC IS FOR EVERYBODY. This is more emphatically true today than ever before.

Everyone interested in music, directly or indirectly, is most cordially invited to inspect these instruments, in order that you make your selection early.
